SSCET had been a great contributor towards the development of my career. The entire staff was very supportive and approachable with an attitude of being ever ready to help. Class room trainings along with real-time case studies, industry best practices with examples and improving communication skills with constant interactions, were extremely useful. The Green campus and infrastructure of the college is one of the finest in Salem. The computer labs were well equipped and available all the time. One could study in the library beyond the class timings. I am thankful to SSCET for the creation of favourable conditions for successful personal and professional growth, wonderful professors and unforgettable years.
